Takes 10 minutes • No redesign • No guesswork

Why Most Websites Don't Convert

Most pages look fine — but visitors hesitate. The problem isn't design. It's unclear decisions.

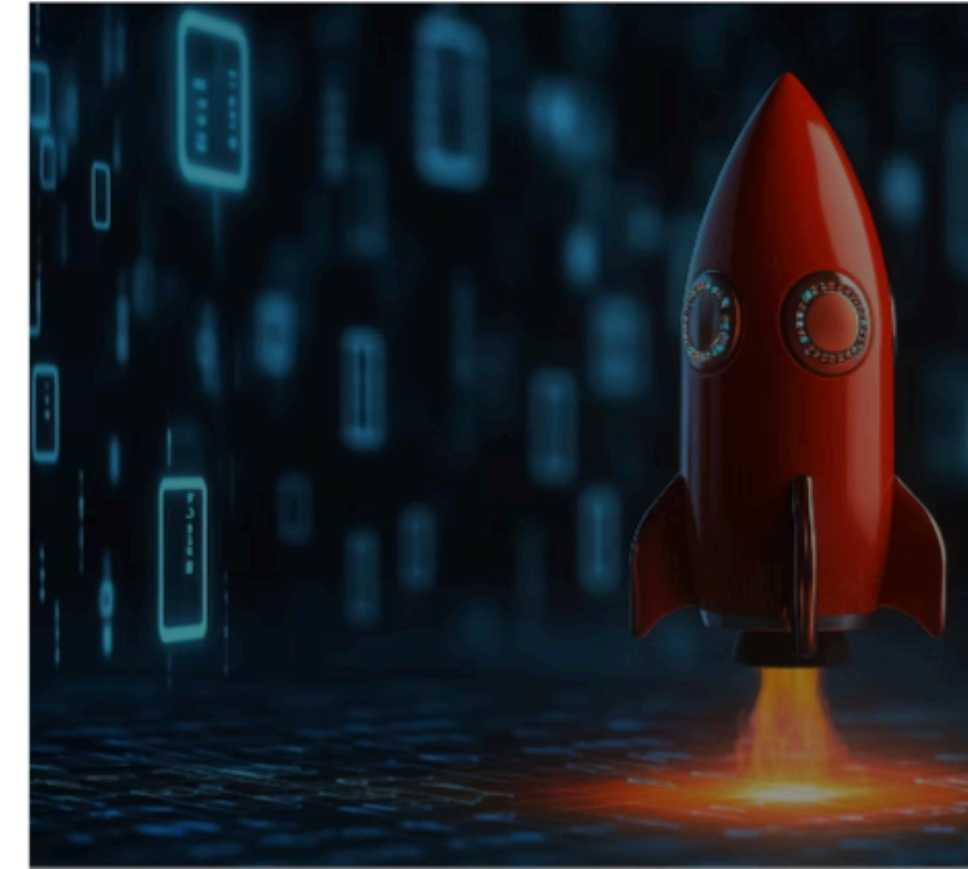

Static comparison for clarity — not a full page scroll.

Most websites struggle because they focus too much on design, trends, and aesthetics instead of strategy. Many business owners spend hours tweaking fonts, colors, and layouts without seeing results...

What This System Gives You

- A 10-minute page audit checklist
- Clear fix-first priorities
- Simple wireframes that show correct structure
- A repeatable system you can reuse
